Dear Dr. Bloomfield:

Thank you very much for your letter and descriptive material on CASCON. I am circulating them to some of my colleagues in an effort to broaden interest in the system.

I think one or two of us may wish to come to Cambridge for a more detailed briefing and direct exposure to CASCON. Or, alternatively, we may, as you suggest, send someone for a couple of weeks to develop "hands-in" experience. I will, in any event, be in touch with you in the near future.

Sincerely,
